

XM and Sirius are taking nothing away from the radio affiliates aside from commercials. As a subscriber, they have every right to broadcast traffic conditions and weather, who says this is proprietary information. I pay for these benefits and feel we should be able to receive these types of broadcasts.